Research and Scholarship in CPD: *Unlocking the potential

With our special guests Dr. Tanya Horsley and Dr. Glenn Regehr

Dr. Horsley is the Associate Director, Research Unit at the Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada. She is also currently working towards completing her EMBA at the Telfer School of Management, University of Ottawa. Her current research explores the formalization of integrated knowledge translation for the co-creation, use and influence of research and funding. She is a member of the faculty at the University of Ottawa where she teaches evidence synthesis methods and proudly serves as an associate editor for the Journal of Continuing Education in the Health Professions & the Canadian Medical Education Journal.

Dr. Regehr serves as the Associate Director (Research) in the Centre for Health Education Scholarship, UBC, and is a Professor in the Department of Surgery. He joined the University of Toronto as a researcher in health professions education in 1993. Since then, Dr. Regehr has been involved in the development and leadership of three HPE research units across Canada: The Wilson Centre (U of T); The Academy for Innovation in Medical Education (U of O) and The Centre for Health Education Scholarship (UBC). He has co-authored over 200 peer reviewed papers and chapters on a range of topics including: OSCE measures, authentic clinical assessment, professionalism, professional identity formation, self-assessment, self-regulation, and feedback.

Register at this URL by March 17! Maximum 3 registrants per University.
