

PDQ Assignment 1

AA 1976

What do I need to know about you to give you the best care possible?

He is of African descent, from Nigeria, currently living in eastern Canada. He enjoys spicy food, walking around, and spending time with his large family- children, wife, brothers, friends, and church community. He is deeply connected to his church, the United Church of Canada, and has a deep faith in God; he engages in prayer and bible study. He states that he believes that "God knows everything and is all powerful" and that he trusts in God "to do the best for us."
