

AG January

She is a social person, but sometimes feels alone with no family on her own. She loves to dance, but had to give it up with the advanced lung cancer. She is terrified of the breathlessness and, especially during the night when she's alone.