

Patient: CD, June

She is cared and treated for metastatic breast cancer. She has become more tired and her pains are increasing. The most important thing for her is the family. She wishes to be seen also by the health-care providers as a caring mother and wife.