

Fridays at the University

October 11, 2024

Chronic Disease Update

Agenda

0820: Welcome

0830: Updates in the Care of Patients with HIV

Laurie Ireland MD, CCFP

0920: Updates in the Management of Kidney Disease

Paul Komenda MD, MHA, FRCPC, FASN

1010: Updates in Recognizing and Managing Pulmonary Hypertension

David Christiansen MD, RCPSC

1100: Break

1130: Rheumatoid Arthritis Refresher

Konstantin Jilkine MD, FRCPC

1220: Review on the Care of Patients who Experience Addiction and Opioid Agonist

Erin Knight MD, CCFP(AM), CCSAM

1320: Closing

Learning Objectives

- Recall the importance of identifying and proactively managing a variety of Chronic Diseases
- Identify updates in best practices to treat patients with certain chronic diseases that will decrease their patients' morbidity and mortality risks
- Develop strategies to implement the updated best practice suggestions in their own practices

Join us for the next session!

The Fridays at the University series consists of eight full day sessions held online. The sessions are targeted toward urban and rural family physicians, Royal College fellows, and other primary care health providers.

Upcoming sessions:

Approaches to Communication
November 15, 2024

Perinatal Period
December 6, 2024

Health System Day
January 17, 2025

Symptoms and Case-Based Approaches
February 7, 2025

Register today!

Full schedule at www.cpd-umanitoba.com

University of Manitoba