

JR March

JR expressed her primary values as being honesty and straightforwardness, stating “I like it when people don’t beat around the bush!” JR added that she believes people should be treated as unique individuals and kindness should guide every interaction.

Relationships are very important to JR; she described how she appreciates when the people close to her can get along and remarked that she is often the one who encourages things to “go smoothly”. JR discussed her only child as being central in her life and her well-being guides JR’s choices; JR’s daughter is three and a half years old.

JR stated she worries about what may happen to her daughter should something happen to JR. JR expressed how scared she becomes when she thinks about the possibility that she may not be able to raise her daughter.