

FRIDAYS AT THE UNIVERSITY

Men's Health Day
June 9, 2023 | 0820 - 1320

AGENDA

- 0820 Welcome
- 0830 Prostate Cancer - Updates for Primary Care | Jay Nayak, MD FRCSC FACSP
- 0920 BPH and Prostatitis – Clinical Nuggets for Primary Care |
Jay Nayak, MD FRCSC FACS
- 1010 Male infertility – systematic approach to management |
Premal Patel, MD FRCSC
- 1100 Stretch Break
- 1130 Testicular lumps and bumps for primary care | Premal Patel, MD FRCSC
- 1220 Male sexual dysfunction – Approach to management | Premal Patel, MD FRCSC
- 1320 Closing Remarks

Objectives:

- Understand evidence-based screening, early diagnosis, and management of patients with prostate cancer (Medical Expert, Communicator, Scholar)
- Recognize the challenges of managing prostatitis and UTIs (Medical Expert, Communicator)
- Describe best practices in managing BPH in primary care (Health Advocate, Communicator)
- Articulate a strategic approach to referrals versus management of male infertility (Communicator, Collaborator)
- Recognize different presentations of testicular conditions (Medical Expert)
- Identify the testicular conditions requiring elective or urgent referrals (Collaborator, Medical Expert)
- Recognize the common causes of male sexual dysfunction and develop an approach for care (Communicator, Medical Expert)

Rady Faculty of Health Sciences

UM